Special Rug Hooking Activities

- We will have 3 days where we are completely at sea. During those days at sea, Gail Dufresne will have 2 separate classes she will teach (fees will apply), course subjects will be forwarded to you at a future date. Kits will be available for purchase.
- For the days we are at sea, we will have a private room where you will be able to do rug hooking, share your work and ideas with other members and make new friends.
- For some of the days we are at port we will have a room available for part of the day should you wish to remain on the ship and do rug hooking or should you return early from port.
- We will have private, custom shore excursions to include a special dyeing class and presentation in St. John NB, Rug Hooking Museum, Christine Little's Encompassing Designs and possibly the Maud Lewis Home in the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia in Halifax, NS. There will be more information on these optional excursions and pricing at a later date.
- Cocktail Party – Meet the other guests in a private one hour open bar cocktail party*
